Important Instructions for the Examinees

1. Admit Card: There is no separate admit card. Bring printed copies of the first page of every application you submitted. The first page with the highest application serial number will serve as your admit card.
2. Seat Plan: You must sit in your assigned seat according to the seat plan pasted on the wall of the examination room.
3. Application Serial Number: Write your application serial number in the designated spaces on both the OMR sheet and the written answer script. If you applied for multiple programs, use the highest serial number among all your applications for your seat plan and write that number on both sheets. (Example: If your serial numbers are 0501500, 0501505, and 0501510, then write 0501510.)

4. Program Preference Order: If you have applied to more than one program, fill in your Program Preference Order in the designated section of the OMR sheet. In the Preference column, assign '1' to your most preferred program, '2' to the next, and so on. In the App. Sl. No. column, write the application serial number corresponding to each program. Leave rows for programs you have not applied for blank.

(Example: If you applied for M.Sc. Engg./M.Engg. in CSE, M.Sc. in AI and ML, and M.Sc. in Software Engineering — in that order of preference — fill '1' for CSE, '2' for AI and ML, and '3' for Software Engineering, along with their respective serial numbers in the App. Sl. No. column. See the sample OMR below.)
